ADMINISTRATION

Education is big business in America. Therefore, West Virginia University is analogous to a corporation composed of president, board of directors, department heads, and their staffs. The capital is provided by the state. The student is the consumer.

To the average eye, the corporation seems complicated; but most people take the function of the university for granted. Many diverse functions are needed to keep the university producing a consumable product.

From the post office in the basement of the Administration Building to President Miller's office on the floor above; from the comptroller's office to a Board of Governors meeting, the necessary functions take place.

Finances, maintenance, public relations, correspondence, classrooms, labs, computers and data processing . . . these are the machines and paper work that create the business and the product.

A university does not exist simply because it is a university; it exists and continues to produce because it functions efficiently and because it is run by competent personnel.

HONORARIES AND ORGANIZATIONS

To provide a share of diversions from the monotony of everyday life, West Virginia University offers a variety of extra-curricular activities. These activities provide opportunities for each student to continue the pursuit of his special interests. They offer a chance to participate in almost any field of endeavor to the student's liking.

For the music lover, there are choirs, glee clubs, bands, and several specialized musical groups. For the vocational-minded, there are many professional honoraries and societies. For writers, there are the Monticola, DA, Literary Magazine, and The Old Wazoo. For executives, there is student government, Mountainlair, and AWS. There is something for everyone.

By participating in extra-curricular activities, each person can find a bit of himself. A chance to develop a special interest is a chance to develop his own person. One finds enjoyment in life and becomes more well-rounded.

Fi Batar Kappar

Founded 1914

Fi Batar Cappar was founded in the year 3016 B.C. by Potolemy and Sanskirt on the Upper Nile. During the storming of Carthage by Caesar, several brave members retreated to the interior with the innermost secrets. Hannibal on his return from New York in 76 A.D. was searching Mount Arrat for highballs when he unearthed a parchment containing the precious secrets of the grand lodge. He delivered these sacred secrets to Brutus, Antony, and Cleo who were running an ice cream stand near the Sphinx. Through the ages, they somehow became the possession of Ponce de Leon, who was searching for the Mississippi River. Up the Potomac and down the Monogahela he came to visit Columbus at his mansion on Dorsey's Knob. He died there, and many years later, his papers were unearthed. Fi Batar Cappar means: "Fi", "shame on you"; "Batar", Esquimish for "boost"; "Cappar", "sky-place, mountaintop, or West Virginia". Together this means, "Shame on you, boost West Virginia (U in particular)", and that is exactly what they do.

ROYALTY

She walks in beauty . . .

Beauty is always present on our WVU campus. Each of our queens has some beautiful attribute which sets her apart from any coed on any other campus in the nation. These girls, whether selected on appearance, leadership, poise, or a combination of these, are known by most of the student body as they hurry to class, laugh over a coke at Jimmy's, study for final exams or decorate their homecoming floats. These girls are our ideal, our choice to represent WVU. Each one is a symbol of enthusiasm, character, dignity, and beauty!

Beauty . . . charm . . . poise . . .

These were the qualities possessed by the 50 girls who originally were entered in the third annual Miss Monticola Pageant.

Playboy Magazine had the difficult task of selecting the ten women who would appear as finalists in the pageant at Morgantown High School.

Miss Monticola Pageant

Excitement mounted as a panel of three local judges deliberated over the decision. All the women were lovely but only one could wear the crown. It fit lovely Susan Nicholas, Miss Monticola of 1966.

Homecoming Queen

GREEKS

With pride you look at the pin you wear, a symbol of a bond strengthened and deepened by time.

Being a pledge is often discouraging. Faith ebbs as the mind grows uncertain. Then . . . a successful pledge raid, a stimulating bull-session, a conscientious work period . . . a feeling of certainty . . . initiation . . . you're in. You belong. The bond is yours forever. Fellowship . . . you feel it now; you're an active.

You lead an active life. You participate with the whole group or individual members. You meet weekly, discussing problems and constantly trying to improve . . . together. You plan campaigns, projects, parties, dances, floats . . . together. You compete in intramurals, sing in serenades, go to football games . . . together. You study, eat, and live . . . together. You share everything—clothes, books, records, ideas, emotions. You are part of the fellowship.

This does not make you immune to disappointment. You experience a letdown when fellowship withdraws a little in a maze of conflicting conceptions and the pressure toward conformity. But, you realize fellowship is more important than dances, floats, and trophies, for after everything else has been forgotten, friends remain.

So you strive for fellowship. This is fraternity and upon your success rests the real success of your group. The bond continues . . .

SPORTS

At West Virginia University, athletics play a big part in the everyday life of the student. Whether it is the exciting WVU—Pitt game, or an intramural, the student has a direct interest. His opportunities to participate in athletic activities are vast, and he will be sure to benefit from any such participation.

What exactly is most beneficial about athletics is hard to say. Is it the element of competition, the development of a fierce, aggressive spirit, the desire to win? Or is it the fostering of a team spirit, a willingness to work together? Maybe it is the physical conditioning that comes from competition resulting in bodily strength and stamina. It is probably a combination of all of these, for all these help to create a better person. This creation is the greatest contribution that sports have to offer.

We pause now to salute the athletes and teams we have seen at West Virginia University. We salute them because of the diversion they have brought, because of the enjoyment they have given. We salute them for their victories, even for their defeats. We salute them because we believe better men are made because of them.

Mountaineer Football 1965

Southern Conference champs for third straight year . . . Victory over arch-rival Pitt . . . National prominence as top offensive unit . .. More records broken than in any other season . . . Recognition of McCune as "Back of the Week" in Sports Illustrated . . .

An impressing resume for any college team would read this way and West Virginia accomplished all this in one season. In compiling their 6-4 record, WVU romped over their first four opponents and surprised the nation with a devastating offense. The Mountaineers were the top yardage gainers in the country after their meetings with Richmond, William and Mary, Pitt, and the Citadel. The bubble was soon to burst, however, as the Mountaineers took to the road, suffering three consecutive losses at the hands of Virginia, Penn State, and Kentucky. Leading the famed victory over arch-rival Pitt was senior quarterback Allen McCune setting eight marks in his last year at West Virginia. Another player not to be forgotten was fullback Dick Leftridge. Kicking specialist Chuck Kinder also booted his way into the books as did John Mallory and sophomore Garrett Ford. The 6-4 record of the 1965 team will not long be remembered, but the records, players, and the determined brand of football they played will long be cherished at the University.

WVU 34 W & W 14

Living up to pre-season expectations, the Mountaineers displayed a tremendous offense and devastating defense for the home fans as WVU thoroughly trounced the Spiders. The touchdowns were divided equally by Mountaineer backs Dick Leftridge, John Mallory, Garrett Ford, Roger Blackwell, and ends Bob Dunlevy and Larry Canterbury. The WVU defense held the Spiders to 8 first downs while Richmond did not penetrate Mountaineer territory past the 35-yard line during the afternoon. Kicking specialist Chuck Kinder converted six of seven extra points attempts to give him an excellent start for the season. WVU showed good versatility as the second string matched the efforts of the starters.

Ford, Kinder, and McCune combined forces to topple the Indians at Williamsburg as they put together an effective running and passing game. The Mountaineers scored three touchdowns and a field goal the first four times they obtained the ball. A 68 yard run by Ford set up the first WVU score as fullback Leftridge carried the ball for first blood. Kinder's field goal put the Mountaineers further in the lead. A 16 yard pass from McCune to Dunlevy provided the home team with a 24-7 halftime margin. Opening up in the third quarter, the Mounties scored on a field goal by Kinder and a McCune to Ford pass ended the scoring for the day.

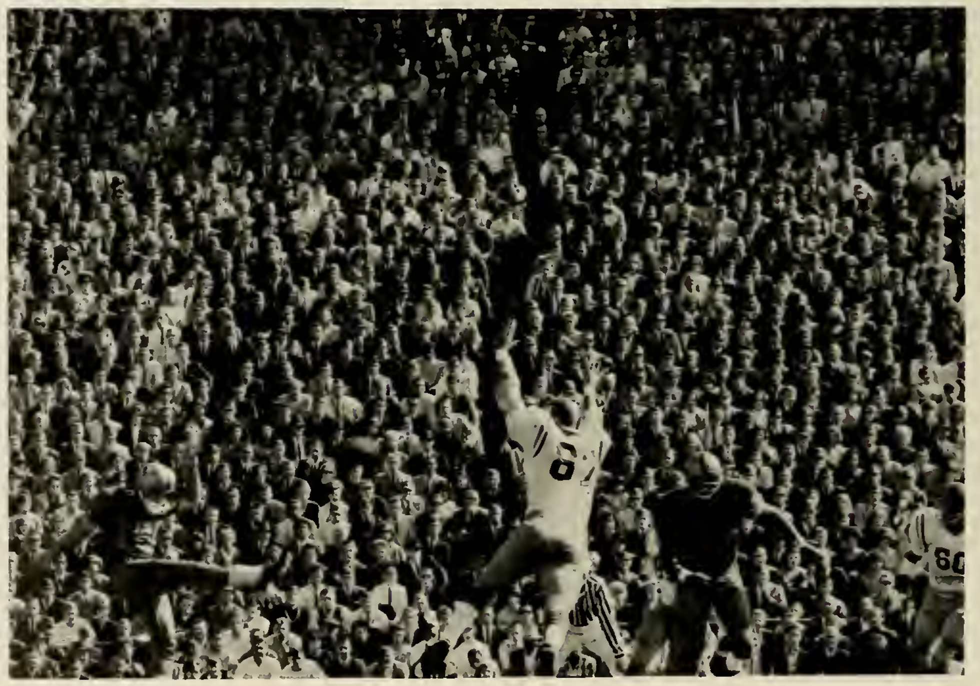
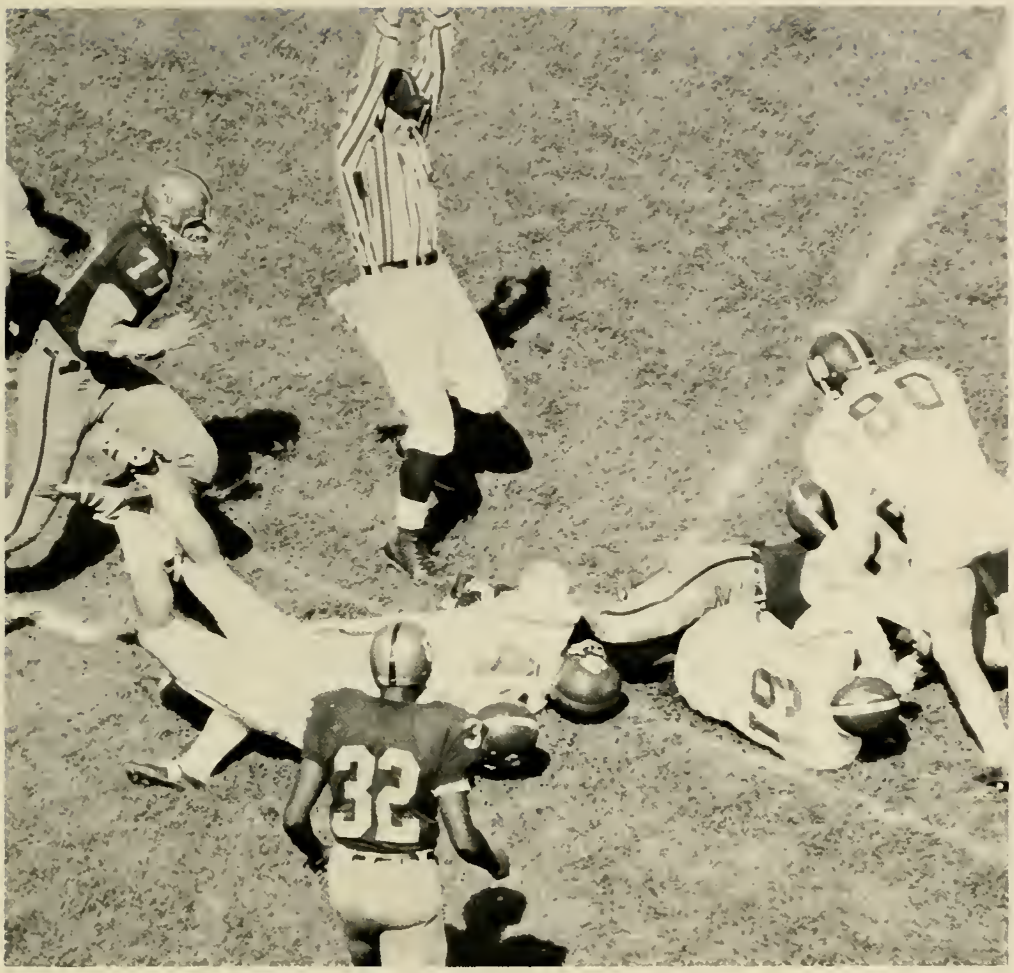
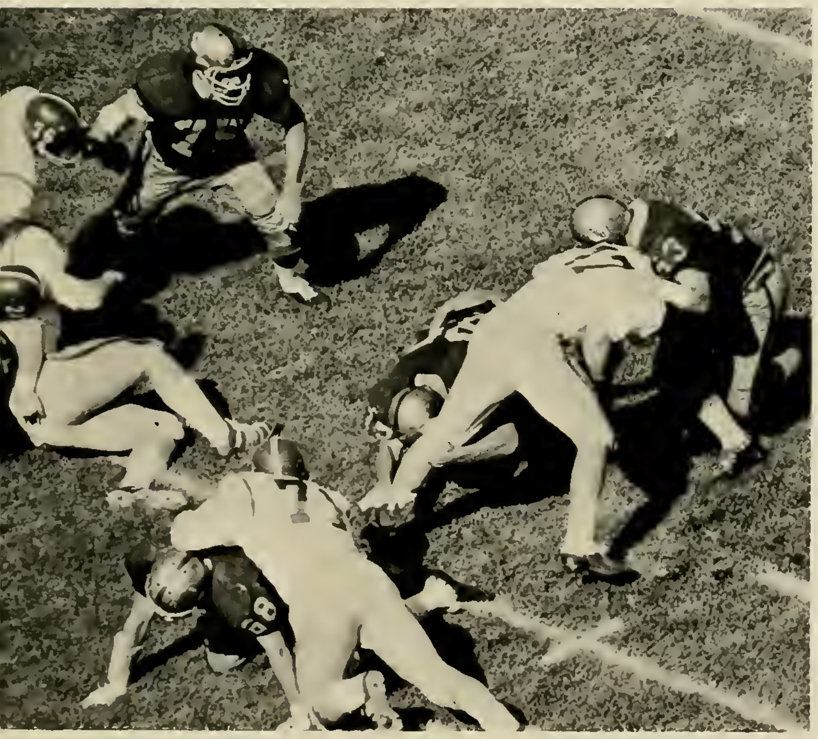
WVU 63 Pitt 48

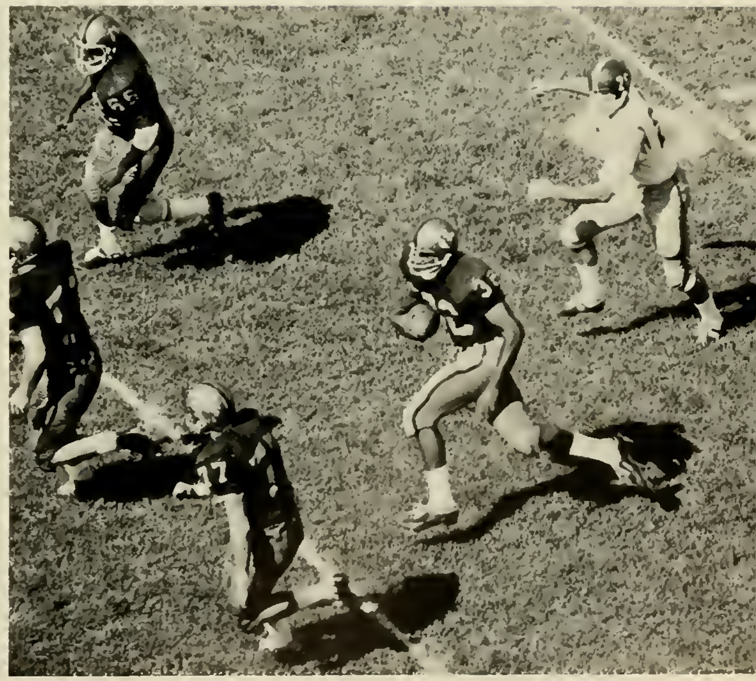
A capacity crowd of 35,000 watched the Mountaineers and the Panthers score the unbelievable total of 111 points in a record setting contest. WVU downed Pitt for their 16th win in 62 contests. The most points ever scored against Pitt by West Virginia before this game were 24 in 1903. Quarterback Allen McCune set a school record for pass yardage for 2 consecutive games with 296 yards in 15 of 18 pass attempts against William and Mary and 320 yards in 18 of 25 against Pitt. McCune's five touchdown passes were instrumental in the victory. West Virginia raced to a 21-0 lead with Leftridge's scoring on a 16-yard run and McCune's passing to Rader for two tallies. The Panthers fought back to a 28-28 tie in the third quarter and later evened the score again at 42-42. McCune then threw the go-ahead to senior Dick Rader, who scored when he caught McCune's pass. A run on a 59-yard pass play and a five-yard sweep by Garrett Ford clinched the game.



Specialist Chuck Kinder punts against arch-rival Pitt.







Mountaineer linemen form an effective blocking shield for halfback Ford.

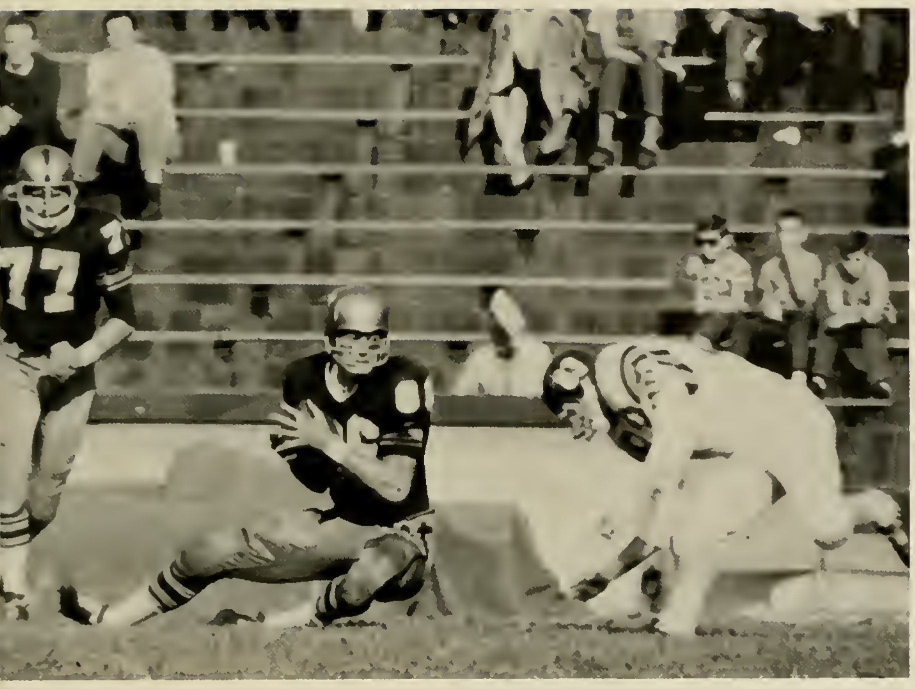
Mountaineers' bread and butter man takes off again.

WVU 25 Citadel 2

WVU 0 Virginia 41

A staunch West Virginia defense proved to be the deciding factor as the Mountaineers romped Citadel. Leftridge received a 10-yard pass from McCune to score as the first period ended. The second period saw Chuck Kinder boot a 34-yard field goal. In the third quarter, Martha intercepted a Citadel pass and raced 35 yards for a touchdown. Mallory then returned a Citadel punt from his own 40 yard line to score on a 60-yard run. The defense also accounted for the last two points as Richie Rhodes caught a Citadel ball carrier in the end zone for a safety.

West Virginia's 1965 football bubble burst at Richmond as the Cavaliers downed the top offensive unit in the nation. The usual brilliant aerial attack displayed by the Mountaineers failed to materialize as WVU only gained 50 yards in the air and quarterback McCune completed only 7 of 25 pass attempts. Another great hindrance for the Mountaineers was their failure to field two kickoffs by the Cavaliers which resulted in quick scores by the Virginia team. WVU's only serious scoring threat came in the fourth quarter when halfback Garrett Ford made a run to the Virginia 16 yard line. A pass reached the goal line, but was nullified due to offensive interference.



Dunlevy tries a sit down strike.

WVU 6 Penn State 44

WVU 8 Kentucky 28

A bevy of mistakes again hampered the Mountaineers as they lost their second straight game. The Nittany Lions held the WVU to only 42 yards on the ground and 89 in the air. Penn State's total was the highest ever recorded against the Mountaineers in a series which began in 1904. West Virginia's only score was set up by a 77-yard kickoff return by sophomore Garrett Ford. The score itself was West Virginia's only claim to fame for it marked the first time all season that Penn State had been scored on through the air. McCune hit end Bob Dunlevy with an 8 yard pass to break the record but the point after touchdown attempt failed. Penn State's defense held Ford to a meager five yards in eight carries while fullback Dick Leftridge could only muster four yards in the same amount of tries as his running mate. The Mounties aerial attack once again failed to threaten the opponents as McCune could only complete 8 of 21. His touchdown pass to Dunlevy, however, was his 11th of the season.

WVU's score against Kentucky began with a 28 yard kickoff return by Ford. It took the Mountaineers 14 plays to cover the distance on their big push and two point conversion on a pass from McCune to Dunlevy upped the total to eight points. West Virginia swept the Wildcats off their feet in the opening minutes of the game as Ford returned the opening kick-off to the 50, but a holding penalty set West Virginia back to the 26 yard line on the next play. This ended the drive for the Mountaineers.

The season's finale was a must to capture the Southern Conference title. The Blue and Gold rose up for the occasion as two long touchdown runs by fullback Leftridge and punt return specialist John Mallory were scored, while quarterback McCune's pin-point passes completed the job. Failing to score in the first period, the Mountaineers clicked late in the second quarter on a McCune to Ford pass good for nine yards and a touchdown. The Mountaineers were behind 10-8 at halftime but were soon to show their superiority. In capturing their 7th Southern Conference championship in 13 years, the Mountaineers continued to break records. Kicking specialist Chuck Kinder shattered the Southern Conference punting record, averaging 43.9 yards for the season. Quarterback Alan McCune ended his career with 1,274 yards passing and 26 touchdown passes, and Ford captured the Mountaineer's yearly scoring duel with 56 points.

WVU 19 Syracuse 41

Beating the Gobblers for the 11th time in 15 meetings, WVU shattered three records to hand Tech their third loss of the season. Leftridge broke the all-time record for rushing with a not-yet-completed three year total of 1,509 yards. Chuck Kinder broke the point-by-kicking record held by Ira Rogers since 1919 thus upping his total to 37 for the year. McCune ran his touchdown pass total to 24 and tied another record by heaving his 13th pass of the current season.

Syracuse drew first blood early in the first quarter to jump, to an early lead. West Virginia soon evened the score with two McCune passes. One pass went to Dunlevy for a 60 yard gain to the Syracuse 14. Another pass to Dick Rader good for 11 yards made a tie ball game. The tide of the game changed in the third period when a Syracuse player blocked a punt by Chuck Kinder and the Orange recovered on the WVU 7. On the next play halfback Floyd Little scored. The Orange scored again and once in the lead, played a relentless game of ball control forcing West Virginia on the defensive and holding them scoreless for the remainder of the game.

Up and over for another WVU score.

First year coach "Bucky" Waters directs his charges for a highly successful season

Mountaineer Basketball 1965-66

West Virginia University's basketball team, under the helm of new head coach Raymond (Bucky) Waters, turned out a colorful and impressive season with a won-loss total of 19-9. Coach Waters came to his present position from Duke where he was assistant coach under Vic Bubas. Waters started the Mountaineers on their long grind with a new innovation—specialization. Faced with abundant but average basketball talent, Waters utilized a platoon system of blockbusters, gangbusters, and a troubleshooter. This system proved highly successful for the Gold and Blue dribblers as Waters would start a game with his blockbusters—average height 6-6, then as his first unit would show signs of battle fatigue, he would substitute his gangbusters. These were composed of John Cavacini, Gary Shaffer, and Norman Holmes. When his team needed an extra spark, Waters would put in his troubleshooter. Senior Bill Ryczaj, who saw only two minutes of action in the first 11 games, averaged 11 points in the next seven games and twice topped the team in scoring. Seventeen times in WVU's first 18 games, a Mountaineer came off the bench to score in double figures. This new system proved the undoing of many of the top teams in the nation as WVU beat Syracuse, St. John's, and Penn State—leaders in the East; Duke, Maryland, and North Carolina—leaders in the Atlantic Coast Conference; and Wisconsin—big gun of the Big Ten. To this list of the vanquished, the Mountaineers also added two wins over arch rival Pitt and eight victories in the Southern Conference. In the Southern Conference Tournament held at Charlotte, N.C., the Mountaineers won out over VMI, 90-75, in the first round and defeated William and Mary, 64-50, in a slowdown battle during the semi-final round.

West Virginia was the underdog in the finals as they went against top rated Davidson, a team that the Mountaineers had upset during the regular season. For the first time, the Mountaineers lost a title game in ten appearances, as they lost to Davidson, 80-69, despite a valiant come-back effort by the defending Southern Conference champs. Named to the all tournament team were sophomore Ron Williams and junior Carl Head. Ron Williams led the team in six departments during the regular season. The Weirton ace topped the squad in total minutes played, field goals attempted and total field goals, assists, total points and scoring average. Carl Head turned in the highest percentage in field goals while John Cavacini led in free throw percentage. Bob Benfield led the team in rebounding. Benfield was not permitted to participate in the SC tourney because of an injury obtained at the end of the season and this fact may have been the undoing of the Mountaineers against Davidson's tall, aggressive ballplayers. The Mountaineers were unbeatable on their home court as they rolled up nine straight victories in Morgantown. Future games look bright for the Mountaineers as junior Bob Benfield will return along with small college transfer Carl Head, also a junior. Sophomores Ron Williams, Dave Reaser, Norman Holmes, Lewis Hale, Ed Harvard, and Dick Penrod will also return next fall. Playing for the last time in a Mountaineer uniform were seniors John Cavacini, John Lesher, Gary Shaffer, and Bill Ryczaj. To sum up the season, Coach Waters repeated his familiar phrase concerning the team. "We may have lost, but I have never been associated with a team with more courage."

Baseball

The 1965 baseball team finished the season with a 19-9 record going 10-4 in the Southern Conference to finish in second place. Furman nudged out the Mountaineers to take the top spot. Chosen from Coach Steve Harrick's charges for the All Southern Conference team were outfielder Don Hetzel, catcher Ron Renner, and pitcher John Radosevich. Mountaineers picked for the second team were second baseman Jan Withrow, outfielder Bill Marovic, and pitcher Jerry Meadows. Left hander John Radosevich finished third in the Southern Conference in pitching while coming in first in strike-outs and complete games. Jerry Meadows, who will return next year, finished fourth in the conference in pitching. Next year's captain, Don Hetzel, finished third in the conference in batting with a .355 average.

Swimming

Coach Jack Lowder's swimmers have the distinction of posting the best record ever recorded for a WVU swim team. This year's swimmers posted an 11-4 won-lost record which includes a string of four victories in a row—another first for the swim team. The 400-yard freestyle relay team ended the regular season with an unblemished 15-0 log. Members of the relay team were Ray Brace, Phil Minnes, Gene Reiff, and Tom Gulliford. While on the road to setting their unbeaten record, the relay team also shattered the WVU record for the 400-yard relay with a time of 3:30.4 which bested the old varsity and pool records of 3:32.6 and 3:35.6 respectively. Senior co-captains Ray Brace and Phil Minnes and senior member Roy Schaney were a large part of the Mountaineers' balanced attack but the younger members of the squad were of tremendous importance in establishing the fine record for the season. Junior Gene Reiff and sophomores Glenn Gabrelcik, Tom Gulliford, Ron Bugaj, John Cunningham, and Craig McKay plus a host of promising freshmen should keep the swimmers on top for many seasons to come.

Gymnastics

This year's gymnastics team turned in a regular season record of 5 wins and 4 losses as they triumphed over Virginia, Kent State, the Coast Guard Academy, William and Mary, and VMI. Coach Bill Bonsall's charges placed first in the Southern Conference Intercollegiate Gymnastics League last year and were ranked fifth in the National Championships in 1965. The team is relatively young with the only senior being captain Ken Musko. Top gymnast for the team is Edward Ehler who is an all-around participant that can compete in every Olympic-type event including the trampoline. This was the fifth straight winning season for Coach Bonsall.

The University rifle team went undefeated in ten matches this season and was ranked first nationally. The Mountaineers defeated nine of the top ten teams in the country. The only top ten team that WVU didn't fire against was the University of Oregon. Among the teams that West Virginia outshot were such impressive ones as Alaska, VMI, The Citadel, Army, Navy, and Kansas. Coach M/Sgt. Francis Orchard has the distinction of having three All-Americans on his squad and one second team All-American. This is the first time in the history of the National Rifle Association that three first team All-Americans have come from one squad. Captain Jack Writer, Dean Bahrman, and Andy Holoubek were chosen for the first team while Jerry Luh was the Mountaineer on the second team. Supplementing these All-Americans are Nick Conger, Bill Gifford, Donna Leggett, and Steve Miller. Writer and Bill Gifford are the only seniors on the squad while the Mountaineers have a fine freshman squad to chose from next year.

Cross Country

Coach Stan Romanoski's trackmen finished their season with a 7-4 record in what was termed a rebuilding year. With only two lettermen returning from last year's squad, Romanoski's runners had to gain experience as the season progressed. Top rated among the teams that West Virginia beat were Ohio State and Kentucky. Howard Jackson, top returning runner from last year and this year's captain, made the All Conference team while his teammate, Mike Chvalevich, made honorable mention.

Soccer

Coach Greg Myers' booters, on the brink of a losing season, rolled up four wins in a round-robin tournament held at Davidson, N.C. to give them the unofficial title of Southern Conference champions. Soccer was not recognized as an official sport until December and next year will begin the first official tournament. The Mountaineers turned in a 7-5-1 record for the season with four of the seven wins coming in the tournament at Davidson. During the weekend tourney the Blue and Gold booters won out over Furman, East Carolina, Davidson, and William and Mary to boost their win total to seven. Three WVU players were named to the all-tournament team. Charlie Toth, Ray Lockridge, and sophomore Joe Topley were selected for the honors. Butch Rossi, team captain, was overlooked in the all-tourney team selection but scored six goals in the four tournament games.

Track

The 1965 West Virginia University track team ended its season with a 4-2 record placing second in the Southern Conference outdoor meet, Coach Stan Romanoski's thinclads set some University and Southern Conference records during the season. Maurice Moon emerged as leading scorer in the Southern Conference meet and also in the Big 4 meet. Moon also holds the University high jump record of 6 feet 4 inches. Steve Stahovic, another Southern Conference champion, holds the school record for the javelin with 223 feet and one-half inch. Pole vaulter Jack Carter established a school record with a vault of 14 feet 11 and one-half inches. The shot put record is held by Jack Carter with a toss of 52 feet 2 and one-half inches. To add to their list of honors, the 440 yard relay team, consisting of Maurice Moon, Earl Bowman, John Campbell, and Henry Armstrong, set the scoring record at the Southern Conference.

Golf

Coach Charles Hockenberry's 1965 golf team finished the season with an even 7-7 record coming in third in the Southern Conference tournament. Top golfer for the second season in a row was Dave Spannbauer. Dave had an 8-5-1 record for the season and an average score of 77.1. Other players and their records were Kuhn (8-4-2), Field (8-5), and Hague (5-9). West Virginia finished behind Virginia Tech and Davidson in the SC tourney with only 19 points separating WVU from the top spot.

Tennis

The 1965 tennis team tied for fifth in the Southern Conference and ended the season with a 7-4 mark. Captain Jay Fast went undefeated in all of his season matches, but was defeated in the SC tournament. He set a record for the tennis team by winning 23 matches in his last year. Eddie Ray, number two man on the squad, moved up to number one overcoming stiff competition and Coach Ruel Foster has high hopes for him and the younger members of the squad.

Wrestling

The defending Southern Conference champions ran into rough going this season with a won-loss total of 5-8. Coach Steve Harrick's grapplers won the season opener against Washington and Jefferson but hit a five match losing streak in which luck seemed to evade the Mountaineers. Three of the five West Virginia losses were by the point margin which was spotted the opposition when the Mountaineers had no one to compete in a specific weight division. The wrestlers came on later in the season to win three of their last five matches. Co-captains Don Check and Bill Meacci, both seniors, will be leaving a relatively young squad. Top prospects for next year are juniors Bill Zimmerman and Ken Woodeshick, sophomores Bob August and Angelo Gianni. This was Coach Harrick's 28th season as mentor of the wrestling squad. His teams have won a total of 151 matches, lost 96, and tied 4. The Mountaineers will go after their third straight Southern Conference crown this year in the coming tournament.

Coach Ed Shockey's charges broke even on their short season with a 1-1 record. Playing the Ohio University frosh at Parkersburg, the "Little Mountaineers" scored a decisive 22-15 victory. The loss was inflicted on the freshmen by Penn State, 12-8, on the Mountaineers' home field. The object of freshman sports is to train the young players for varsity sports and the young Mountaineers spent most of their time training with the varsity. Standouts during the short season were Joe Manchin and Bob Zambo at quarterback, Steve Edwards at halfback, and Jim Bosley and John Russell on the line. Next year's frosh team will have a new coaching staff and they plan to play five games which is the maximum for the freshman season.

CLASSES

From all walks of life we came. We were farmers, athletes, and scholars. We were perhaps one of the best cross-sections of American youth that could be found anywhere, yet our purpose was one . . . to grow in knowledge and in our understanding of people.

We are all individuals with our different personalities, desires, and ideals, but with only one main task at present. We laugh at different ideas yet our ultimate goals are much the same. We are many, yet we are one.

From the beginning of our freshman year when we stayed together to face the onslaught of college, we have worked together, played together, eaten together, studied together. Joys and sorrows have been shared freely, and friendships have been made that can never be forgotten. The memories of our life here will never leave us, and as we enter different walks of life, many times these memories will be revived. In future years we will meet each other and reminisce of old times and old friends.

ADVERTISEMENTS AND INDEX

One of the most important facts of our world economy is that of advertising. It serves as an index to the state of economic development which is the measure of man's ingenious use of his available resources, his technical achievements, and his managerial skills. Advertising may be carried on by the use of several media—publications being one of the ways. Certainly many publications are made possible or at least more successful because of the collection body of advertisers who utilize this medium as a method of furthering their aims.

Advertising has played a major part in making possible the production of this record of West Virginia University's Class of 1966. The ultimate success of this book as a source of memories for the class must be proved with the passing of time. The foundations of this hope for success can be directed to the faith of those business enterprises and individuals whose advertisments appear on the following pages.

Look for the Steelmark when you buy

When the STEELMARK appears on a product in a store, it means that the product is a good buy, that you will get your money's worth because it is made of steel produced in the United States by American men and women. It has become a symbol of a progressive industry.

The STEELMARKS above represent the types of fine steel produced by the men and women who work in the mills at Weirton Steel Company. These people have demonstrated their awareness of the direct relationship between the company's sales and their jobs. The security of their jobs depends upon the success of Weirton Steel in competing with foreign steels and other American products.

The STEELMARK is helping Weirton Steel sell American steel. The people of Weirton, both company employees and other residents, are also helping the nation's economy when they look for the STEELMARK when they buy.
